Unlicensed landfill is blocking drainage

By SUSAN SIGNAIGO-WEICH
of the Press-Record

An unlicensed landfill at Illinois Route 203 and Bend Road has become more than an eyesore for Horseshoe Lake area landowner William Nichols. Nichols said he has lived with the problem for three years and has exhausted his list of people to call about it.

The land Nichols finds to be such a problem occupies about 15 acres in an unincorporated section of Nameoki Township near Eagle Park Acres. It is used partially as an auto salvage yard and dumping ground and partially as a breeding area for hogs.

The latest development is that its growth is hampering drainage in the Horseshoe Lake area, officials said during the weekend.

Ken Menzing, regional manager of land pollution for the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency (IEPA), said the agency knows of the operation. He charged that the landfill is being operated without a permit.

"It's illegal for anyone to operate a landfill without IEPA permission," he noted, adding, "but right now the IEPA is more concerned about hazardous waste problems than it is about this type of problem."

"Our backing is getting less and less. It's just a matter of fitting it into our schedule."

Madison County Planning and Zoning Administrator Paul Hawkins said he has not received any telephone complaints concerning the property for the last two years, but that an owner had been cited for violations in the past.

"In 1969, when I was an inspector for the county, there were some complaints made and I went to the property. At that time, I turned it over to whoever was in charge of zoning, because the land was being leased by people from out of state."

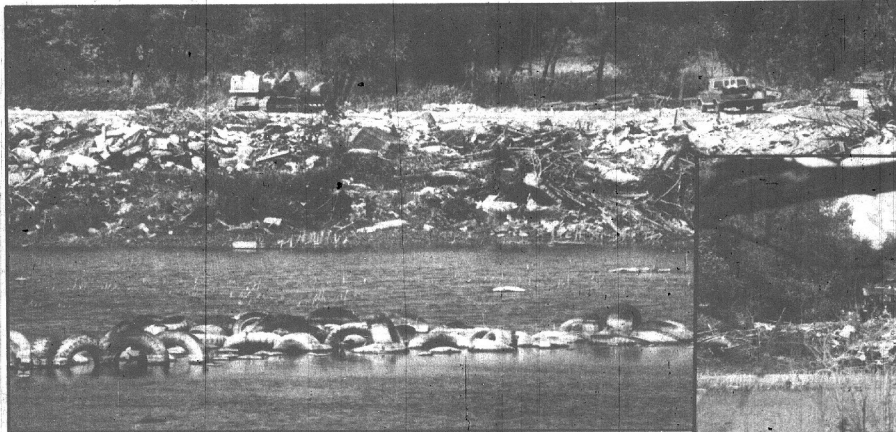

"In 1971, I received more complaints about the land and, upon inspection, I discovered that people were breeding about 500 hogs on the property and were feeding them raw garbage."

"It's illegal to do that, so a couple of arrests were made. The breeders were told they had to cook the garbage before giving it to the hogs."

"I also took pictures of demolition (debris from demolished buildings) that had been hauled in and was blocking local drainage. The group was cited for that violation and was told to stop dumping."

"After that, I didn't receive any complaints on the property until 1981, when there was a big fire on the lot and the

English emphasis for Madison pupils

By SUSAN SIGNAIGO-WEICH
of the Press-Record

Delores Folkerts, curriculum director for the Madison School District, announced at a Board of Education meeting Thursday night that the district is launching a new English curriculum for grades kindergarten through 12.

"The administration and faculty reviewed the entire curriculum and determined that English was the heart of the curriculum," said Mrs. Folkerts.

"Each student must master the English language, orally, written and printed, before any other subject can be learned. No matter what the discipline, English is the 'tool' of learning."

"All faculty and staff members of the district also are being asked to make a point of using correct English around the students."

"This will model proper English for students, both in and out of the classroom. The custodian, cook and coach have just as much a responsibility to provide reinforcement of English

School till 18 proposed

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record

The State Board of Education on Thursday heard proposals to require students to attend school until age 18, lengthen the required minimum school day from five to seven class hours, and end the requirement that districts transport students.

State Supt. Donald Gill gave his preliminary recommendations on staff reports that address the school day and school year, compulsory attendance, transportation, student health and student records.

Prepared as Phase II of a comprehensive State Board look at all statutory and regulatory rules for Illinois elementary and secondary education, the studies were referred to the board's Planning and Policy Committee. A series of public hearings will be held before the board acts.

One study calls for all to attend until age 18 or until a high school diploma or its equivalent is earned.

What about dropouts? One out of four fails to graduate at present. The plan

VA office move OK'd

Chuck Lucas, public affairs officer for the Department of Veterans' Benefits, said Friday the Veterans Administration will be moving its record center to the Granite City Army installation within the next 12 to 18 months.

He received the decision that day from Administrator of Veterans' Affairs Harry N. Walters. "Everything's moving along," said Lucas.

The plan involves a tradeoff of office space between the Army and the VA. Eight-four VA employees will be based here and about 1,000 Army personnel will be transferred within buildings in St. Louis.

The plan for the move was first considered in May of this year and was later recommended by Dorothy Starbuck, chief benefits director of the VA.

The VA records office currently occupies about 300,000 square feet in Building 110 of the Federal Center, located at 3300 Goodfellow Blvd., St. Louis. The office maintains records for nearly 15 million armed service veterans.

The Army is currently located in Building 110 at the Federal Center but will relocate because Building 110 is to be renovated.

EOC, state to confer

By PAT HAYLUTZ
of the Press-Record

The matters of unpaid utility bills and a special audit ordered by the Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs (DCCA) were assigned to members of the finance committee of the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission (EOC) on Thursday.

Accepting the recommendation from Executive Director Ruben Williams, executive board members of the EOC voted unanimously to have the finance committee study the financial problems of the agency and the audit results.

The committee, whose members are Gary Doerr, Rudy Papa, Judge Clayton Williams and new member Dan Corbett, will study the problems and present a detailed report to the board in a special executive meeting Oct. 17.

Illinois state officials will meet with the board Oct. 18 to discuss the weatherization program funding audit, after which a public report will be made available.

Tree kills Dr. Holt

Dr. Leland H. Holt, 56, widely known veterinarian and owner-operator of the Belmore Animal Hospital, 217 Johnson Road, was killed Saturday when a large tree he was cutting down fell backward across him, striking him in the right temple area.

The accident occurred at Dr. Holt's farm home near Perryville, Mo., where he was pronounced dead at the scene at 11:48 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 8, 1983, by Perry County (Mo.) Coroner Charles Drayton.

Drayton ruled the death was accidental.

Accompanied by his son, Bruce, Dr. Holt was cutting trees in a wooded area on the farm property when the Granite City veterinarian was struck across the head by the falling tree and was knocked to the ground beneath the tree trunk, the Missouri coroner said.

Dr. Holt and his family reside at 2105 Garfield Ave. He received his doctor of veterinary medicine degree in 1955 from the University of Missouri at Columbia, where he earlier earned a bachelor of science degree in culture.

Dr. Holt spent one year County veterinarian at C before moving to Granite

Central Hardware bigger, better

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Editor

A new and different Central Hardware will open in Crossroads Plaza Shopping Center Friday, Oct. 28, tailored to meet the wishes of its customers, Jim Cohen, president of Central Hardware said as he led the press on a tour Thursday.

The store will open with about two weeks of special prices, a game, clowns, special guests and lots of gala activities," Cohen said.

A tornado May 1 demolished much of the store, which had to be entirely rebuilt, "from the tile to the ceiling," the president said.

He said when customers used to the old Central Hardware came into the new store, "they should be overwhelmed by the amount of merchandise they see," Cohen said. "We had an idea we wanted to try and the tornado gave us the opportunity to try it in Granite City," he added.

The rear wall to the storeroom has been taken out and the area converted to more sales space—approximately 60,000 square feet of floor area, Cohen explained. There is very little storeroom area left, he said, and almost all the merchandise is on the sales floor. "What you see is what you get," he noted, explaining that many people were bothered by viewing a floor sample, then finding a sales person to go to the storeroom to get the item and bring it back out, a system that occasionally took quite a bit of time. Now, everything is on the floor.

"We want our customers to come in, find the merchandise easily and comparably priced and get it easily out of the store," Cohen said. He noted the number of checkout lanes also has been increased from seven to 10.

Display racks now are longer and 84 inches high, rather than the former 60 inches, allowing more merchandise on each rack. Between each set of racks, customers are, literally, surrounded by merchandise.

The types of things Central will offer also have changed somewhat. While added product lines will offer greater selection in most building ducts, there has been a de of sporting goods, some such as television sets in certain other areas.

Conversely, the garden department has expanded, and accessories offerings will be extensive and full service on can be offered.

The main emphasis, however, has

Venice may make parents responsible for children being out after hours

By VALERIE EVENDEN of the Press-Record

A proposed new ordinance making it unlawful for parents to permit their children to be out on the public streets, highways, roads, alleys, parks, playgrounds, wharves, docks, public grounds, public places, public buildings, places of amusement and entertainment, vacant lots or other unsupervised places between the hours of 11 p.m.

The alderman received copies of the proposed statute to review at last week's council session. Action on the proposal, which calls for possible fines of up to $500 for each violation, is to be taken at a later meeting.

During the summer months, council members have focused considerable attention on problems created by groups of teenagers and younger children frequently seen on city streets at all hours of the night.

In response to requests to curtail such late-night activities, Mayor Echols obtained a copy of an East St. Louis ordinance, which reportedly has proven effective in reducing complaints involving juveniles by placing responsibility on a parent or guardian by statute and levying fines when applicable.

The proposed Venice ordinance, modeled on the East St. Louis city law, states in part:

"That it shall be unlawful for the parent, guardian or other adult person having the care and custody of a minor under the age of 17 years to knowingly permit such minor to loiter, idle, wander, stroll or play in or upon the public streets, highways, roads, alleys, parks, playgrounds, wharves, docks, public grounds, public places, public buildings, places of amusement and entertainment, vacant lots or other unsupervised places between the hours of 11 p.m.

and 6 a.m. of the following day; except that on Fridays and Saturdays the hours shall be 12 a.m. (midnight) until 6 a.m.

"The provisions of this section shall not apply when the minor is accompanied by his parent, guardian or other adult person having the care and custody of the minor; or where the minor is upon an emergency errand or legitimate business directed by his parent, guardian or other adult person having the care and custody of the minor.

"That any person found to be in violation of this ordinance or any provision thereof, shall be fined not less than $15 nor more than $500.

Little discussion followed distribution of the ordinance to council members.

Lupus Week declared in Venice

Mayor Tyrone Echols has proclaimed the week of Oct. 16 through Oct. 23 as "National Lupus Week" in Venice and is urging the general public to learn more about this misdiagnosed and often mistreated disease which affects more than a half million people, over 70 percent of them women.

Lupus Erythematosus is a chronic disease which affects the immune system of the body. Lupus varies in severity, ranging from mild to severe to fatal.

The cause of lupus is unknown and there is no specific treatment. Also, there is no known cure at this time, but extensive research is being conducted throughout the United States, it was noted.

In other business, the aldermen heard: Plans for a fellowship banquet at New Salem Baptist Church when Mayor

Echols will introduce the guest speaker, Mayor Carl

Agreed with a recommendation from a St. Louis consulting engineer to have specifications prepared for the construction of a storage shed to be built on the north side of the McKinley Toll Bridge garage. Estimated cost of the shed is $4,000.

If not protected from severe weather or theft, replacement cost of the equipment and materials to be stored in the building would be three to four times this amount, Joseph B. Brooks, consulting engineer, advised the council.

An existing garage and adjacent shed are full to capacity and steel plates and rolled sections are being laid on the ground outside, resulting in several having been stolen, Brooks said. A wheel mounted pipe-line welder, essential for all maintenance and repair work on the bridge, also requires an inside storage area, the council was informed.

Learned from Fourth Ward Alderman Victor Valentine Sr. about hazardous traffic conditions for school children crossing Weaver Street enroute to Blair School. The alderman asked if "reduce speed" signs could be installed at that location.

New traffic signs of all types, as designated by the state, presently are being erected throughout the community, Mayor Echols said. The project still is not completed in some areas, he pointed out.

Area PTA Council plans benefit dance

The Granite City Area Council of Parent-Teacher Associations is completing plans for its annual "Scholarship Fund Dance."

The dance will take place from 8 p.m. until 1 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 22, at the Tri-City Post American Legion Hall, 1825 State St. The public is invited to attend.

Costumes are required and prizes will be awarded to persons whose attire is judged outstanding. Presentation of other gifts also is planned.

All proceeds from the event will help fund two or more scholarships for deserving students at Granite City High School, a spokesman advised.

Preparations for the gala affair were reviewed at last week's meeting of the Granite City Area PTA Council at Mitchell Grade School.

A potluck dinner preceded the business session with Mrs. Art Menendez, wife of the principal of the host school, offering the invocation.

June Branding, council president, was in charge. Among the items on the business agenda was the approval of amendments to association bylaws.

KIRKPATRICK ARREST
Carl A. Schneid, 19, Alton, was charged with disorderly conduct after allegedly persisting in using loud profanity in the 3500 block of Kirkpatrick Homes last week.

If fall is here, can flu be far behind?

Illinois Public Health Director William L. Kempfers has stressed the importance of influenza vaccinations for anyone in the "high-risk" group, and also says the ill and aged aren't the only ones who get flu.

"You may be 21, hale and hardy, and still be invaded by the influenza virus," Kempfers said this week.

"What are the symptoms of influenza, and how do you care for yourself if you get it? Influenza develops fast after you've been exposed—within only one to three days—and when the symptoms strike, they usually come on rapidly."

"If you're the victim, the first thing you'll notice is that you're feeling chilled, or that you have a headache and muscular aches and weakness. A backache is a common symptom, and most people lose their appetite."

"You can usually tell whether what you're coming down with is a bad cold or influenza because, if you have flu, your temperature will climb rapidly during the first day of symptoms—usually to 101 or 102."

"Then it reaches a peak, probably not higher than 103. As a rule, it goes down gradually over a few days, but it may drop quickly only to rise again on the third day."

"Ordinarily, the fever only lasts about three days, but it may go on for as long as a week."

"As your temperature drops, you'll probably notice stuffiness in your nose, and you may develop a cough. But once you've reached this stage, you are probably on your way to recovery."

"An overly tired feeling can last for a week or more. If you are in very poor health, it may take even longer to get your strength back."

"You may also have a loose cough for a few weeks. These symptoms are not uncommon at all."

Kempfers continued, "Symptoms of influenza do not include cramps, vomiting or diarrhea. These are symptoms of what is commonly called intestinal or stomach flu. This illness is caused by a virus, too, but not one of the viruses in the influenza group."

"When many people around you are becoming sick with influenza and the air is laden with viruses, it's almost impossible to avoid getting in the path of a few coughs and sneezes. However, there are a few precautions you can take."

"You can keep up your resistance by getting plenty of rest and eating regular, well-balanced meals. And for the short duration of an influenza outbreak, you would be wise to stay out of crowds as much as possible."

"If someone in your family has influenza, keep his or her dishes and towels separate from the rest of the family's. The sick person should cover his coughs and sneezes with paper tissues and drop them at once into a paper bag which should be replaced frequently."

"Whenever you have to be around someone with influenza, or a cold for that matter, wash your hands frequently and thoroughly with warm, soapy water."

"Most doctors recommend bed rest for the treatment of influenza. Aspirin will help ease the pain and bring down the fever. It also helps to drink a lot of fluids if your fever is high."

"None of the antibiotics are effective against viruses; however, your doctor may give you an antibiotic if he thinks you are getting another kind of infection as a result of the flu. Don't take medicine your doctor does not prescribe."

"You should plan on staying at home for at least two days after the fever is gone. Influenza lowers your resistance to other illnesses, so avoid exposure until you have regained your health."

Nameoki plans refuse pickups

Nameoki Highway Commission, Frank Mehell, has announced a new schedule for the collection of tree limbs and other large articles.

The township will pickup up tree branches and limbs the second week of each month.

Other large articles will be collected the first week of each month.

Mehell said the workload and other possible schedule delays, at times, could extend or run the two schedules together.

STEAL WHEELS

Harry Torosian, 1725 Poplar St., reported last week that his garage was burglarized, with the intruder stealing the front tires and wheels from a 1977 Ford and propping the vehicle up on concrete blocks.

Employment of Mrs. Shirley Frick as a teacher assistant at Wilson School was voted last week by the Granite City Board of Education.

It was decided to add a second teacher to assist in directing the after-school elementary vocal chorus, Supt. B.J. Davis said. Added cost for the school year will be $800.

Mildred E. Anderson, a Granite City High School cafeteria employee, will retire effective Dec. 31. She has worked for the school district 15 years.

Merlin "Pete" Robinson was named Granite City High School head track coach, Robert Stegemeier GCHS head baseball coach and Jim Davis GCHS head softball coach.

A head coach of high school girls' basketball will be considered at the Oct. 10 board meeting, along with assistant coaches for some of the winter and spring sports at GCHS.

The Coolidge Junior High coaching staff for 1983-84 was completed by appointing the following:

Paul "Buzz" Kindle, head coach, and Harry Briggs, assistant coach, boys' basketball; Maurice Hemphill, head coach, and Kindle, assistant coach, girls' basketball; Steve Cavanaugh, head coach, wrestling; and Keith Parker, head coach, and Hemphill and Don Sughlin, assistant coaches, track.

"These tests were part of the series of basic skills tests that were district developed from 1978 through 1980."

"Experience has indicated that these tests have taken a considerable amount of time to administer and have provided very little helpful information."

"As you recall, we have adopted the CTBS testing program for grades 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10. These tests provide more meaningful information."

Student testing revisions voted

The Granite City Board of Education has decided to drop third and sixth grade tests of mathematics skills. These tests will be used instead as screening in the Chapter I supplemental mathematics program.

29 Hospice volunteers undergo 4-week training

Hospice of Madison County has completed a four-week Volunteer Training Program under the direction of the program's director of volunteers, Lois Lybarger.

The future volunteers are from Collinsville, Edwardsville, Granite City and Troy. Of the 29 enrolled, 17 completed all four sessions. Make up sessions will be scheduled for those unable to attend all four evenings.

Certificates of completion were presented by Mrs. Lybarger to Marilyn and Dale, Howard, Judy Riney and Ruth Hancock, Doris Dwyer, Kim and Jeff Oggera, Jo Hulse, Mary Rives, Terry Bell, Margaret Raymer, Jody Whitaker, Loydene Davis, Lucretia Wright, Gen Helrich and Joan McCracken.

Next, each of these people will be interviewed and integrated into the program in their skill areas, according to patient family needs. Volunteers are needed in direct patient care, clerical, errands, transportation and family support.

If a person wishes to be a bereavement volunteer, one more session dealing with loss will be a requirement.

The training program touched on all areas of the hospice concept. The first session, Dr. Charles Carr discussed the hospice concept and philosophy and structure. The overview of hospice staff role, was explained by Jane Blyden, Mark Kapilla, Hospice nurses, and Judy Rainwater, office secretary.

The second evening covered the medical aspects of hospice by Rose Eisenbeis, Hospice volunteer nurse, and the spiritual aspects of nursing care of hospice patients by the Rev. Chris Zachary, Hospice chaplain.

The third class covered exploration of personal feelings about death and dying taught by Dr. Ann Beatty.

The remainder of the evening was devoted by a panel discussion with Gen Helrich, Carol Epperson, Wanda Kamphoener and Ray McGee, each a volunteer in a different area of the program.

CRASH INJURES TWO

Viola Carahan, 72, of 8850 John Glenn Drive and Robert L. King, 31, St. Louis, suffered cuts and bruises when the right side and front of their westbound and southbound vehicles collided during rain on Illinois Route Three at West Pantoon Road last week. King was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center and the other driver was charged with failing to yield the right-of-way.

Fulbright grant deadline Oct. 14

The deadline for competition for graduate study abroad under the Fulbright Program for 1984-85 is Friday, Oct. 14, according to Vaughn Lindsay, dean of Graduate Studies and Research at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Only a few more days remain in which qualified graduate students may apply for any of the 670 awards available in more than 70 different countries.

Dean Lindsay said that most of the grants provide round-trip transportation, tuition and maintenance for an academic year. A few provide international travel only or a stipend intended as a partial grant-in-aid.

Applicants must be citizens of their application, and should hold a bachelor's degree or its equivalent before the beginning date of the grant. In most cases, they should also be proficient in the language of the host country.

Except for specific awards, candidates may not hold a doctorate (Ph.D.) at the time of their application. Dean Lindsay said that candidates for 1984-85 are ineligible for grants to any country where they have been doing graduate work or conducting research for six months or more during the 1983-84 academic year.

Creative and performing artists are not required to have a bachelor's degree, Dean Lindsay said, but they must have four years of professional study or the equivalent experience.

Social work applicants must have at least two years of professional experience after they have earned the master of social work degree, and candidates in medicine must have an M.D. at the time of application.

Additional information and application forms at the time of their application, and should hold a bachelor's degree or its equivalent before the beginning date of the grant. In most cases, they should also be proficient in the language of the host country.

Naturalist teacher to address the Palisades

Michael Schneider, life and earth science teacher in Fairview Heights will present a program dealing with the outdoor education of students by introducing them to the real world through the use of outdoor science stations. He will talk at the October meeting of the Palisades Group of the Sierra Club at the First Presbyterian Church, 4th and Alby streets in Alton at 7:30 tonight.

"Schneider wrote, 'With the increasing trend toward outdoor recreation; it is time to get outside and involve students in the natural world. They need to be made aware of the pressure man is exerting on the environment and how this will, in turn, affect them. By making students aware of the real world, it is also possible to educate them about practical ways of taking care of the environment while still enjoying all the wonders it has to offer.'"

Schneider completed his bachelor of arts degree in physical geography and master of science in Environmental Studies at Southern Illinois University. He has taught at Pontiac Junior High since 1971. He has received several awards including the "Outstanding Young Educator" Award in 1982 he received the "Illinois Conservation Teacher of the Year" for his program in outdoor science and environmental education. He presently is a facilitator of "Project Learning Tree" workshops which provide supplementary environmental activities for teachers.

300 ALBUMS STOLEN

Prying a locked door, a burglar entered a utility shed at the home of Don Waelz, 2900 Circle Drive, last week. Taken were 300 record albums, a $70 car-burster, a $50 antique coffee table, a $28 circular saw, a $28 masonry drill and a box of tools worth $26.

Postal costs still being contained

Postal costs already are a big problem for businesses and families but, for the second straight year, the problem has not worsened.

The U.S. Postal Service had a surplus of about $500 million for the 1983 fiscal year that ended Sept. 30, following its surplus of $802 million in the previous fiscal year.

The two consecutive surpluses were the first such pairing since the former Post Office Department was reorganized into the semi-independent Postal Service in 1970.

Postmaster General William F. Bolger said at a joint hearing of two House postal subcommittees this fall that phasing out traditional congressional subsidies for the mail service was one of the goals of the reorganization act.

"Today's postal system is precisely the kind of streamlined governmental organization that was envisioned by the framers of postal reform in 1970," he testified. "In contrast with the big federal deficit and cutbacks in other services, the performance of the Postal Service stands out as a prominent exception."

The governing board of the Postal Service has decided that mail rates will stay at the current level until at least October 1984.

This is the kind of news we like to hear from Washington but, much of the time, do not.

Economical new SIUE housing

Southern Illinois University trustees are right in authorizing SIU at Edwardsville to continue developing plans for up to $20 additional on-campus single-student housing units. The expansion would be done economically, by renovating and converting existing apartments at the Tower Lake housing complex.

As transportation costs rise during the coming years, the facilities are likely to become increasingly important; they can provide a way to maintain the southwestern Illinois region's access to SIUE, as well as attract students from beyond that region. More housing seems essential if the big investment in classrooms and laboratories is to be fully utilized.

An architectural and engineering firm will be named to review the proposal, assess and refine cost estimates, and further evaluate the feasibility. Elements include:

1. Renovating 158 existing single apartments by replacing the kitchen and dining area with a second bathroom and a third bedroom, increasing the occupancy of each apartment from four to six students for a gain of 316.

2. Constructing next to the Tower Lake commons building a dining hall with capacity for managing 948 meal contracts for occupants of the renovated units.

3. Converting 88 apartments from family to single-student units for an occupancy increase of 192.

4. Adding one additional student occupant to each of 12 present three-bedroom apartment units for an increase of 12.

5. Buying furniture for the 520 additional spaces.

6. Constructing such site improvements as parking, sidewalks and lighting.

Financing would be through a $5.6 million revenue bond issue. At nine percent annual interest and 25-year maturity, the bonds would result in monthly room rent of $125 and a monthly meal contract rate of $144.

Such fees are competitive with the projected rates at other public universities in Illinois. But it should be kept in mind that the favorable estimates are an assumption that is contingent on completion of the project by September 1985.

No avoiding taxes, even on bribe

Alton Telegraph comment—Sentencing of St. Louis political figure Sorkis Webb at Reno, Nev., to three years in prison may put others on notice that the government is serious about collecting taxes.

Convicted June 18 on two counts of income tax fraud, Webb received the maximum sentences and fine Oct. 3; if appeals are unsuccessful, he will serve about a year before being eligible for parole.

He was prosecuted for failing to report as income $157,000 in kickbacks received in the mid-1970s from contractors of an expansion project at the Aladdin hotel and casino in Las Vegas. Webb was general counsel for the Aladdin.

A byproduct of the sentencing hearing was subpoenaing of St. Louis Detective Chief John L. Doherty, who had written a character reference letter for Webb on police department stationery. Doherty learned the hard way that the appearance of impropriety is almost as bad as impropriety itself.

The judge said a preponderance of evidence showed Webb was connected with organized crime figures. As a restriction of his bond, he has been ordered not to associate with crime figures.

The conviction resulted from a seven-year investigation by federal Strike Forces, which try to combat tax evasion and suspected organized criminal activity. The Reagan administration has set up a 20-member national panel to conduct regional public hearings similar to the old Kefauver committee.

Reagan says the commission will "redeem our promise to do all in our power to break apart and cripple the criminal syndicates that, for too long, have been tolerated in America."

"The power of these syndicates infects every part of our society. The cost in human and fiscal terms is incalculable. And the climate of lawlessness that their very existence fosters makes this confederation of career criminals a costly and tragic part of our history."

We wonder if Mr. Webb and Lt. Col. Doherty were listening to our commander-in-chief?

News Notes

Granite Technologies, Inc., has received a $250,000 U.S. urban development action grant to help renovate a Chicago building to house a new fully automated granite-cladding fabrication plant. The project will create 80 jobs plus 12 construction jobs.

The Illinois Supreme Court has voided the death sentences and murder convictions of three Chicago men. Errors were cited and new trials were ordered. Chief Justice Robert Underwood said he will retire in December 1984.

The FCC has increased from five to 10 years the term of amateur radio licenses held by 417,000 "ham" operators.

Cong. Paul Simon captured 34 of 918 votes cast in a U.S. senatorial preference poll Saturday at Springfield, Illinois Senate Press. Philip Rock received 24. Compiler Ronald Burris 79 and Alex Sethi, 51.

The Cahokia Mounds State Historic Site has been removed from the U.S. Interior Department's list of endangered landmarks. Adjacent construction projects have been altered or postponed, further safeguarding 80 surviving ceremonial Indian mounds.

The Chicago Sun-Times says state legislators are using many of their scholarship grants for political purposes, and sometimes their own children.

An election will be held Nov. 8 in the Alton-Bellefonte Place street light district for authority to increase the present tax rate limit on $100 assessment by 9.5 cents, from 12.5 to 22 cents.

Kerr-McGee in Madison and Rellly Tar & Chemical, Granite City, are among sites that the General Accounting Office, investigative arm of Congress, says have hazardous waste and are not fully complying with federal rules on the detection of possible contamination of drinking water.

A second lock in the Alton lock and dam replacing the first project is included in a list of 43 new water development construction projects in a $119 million appropriation passed Thursday by the U.S. House. But further legislation would be necessary for the $245 million second dam to actually be scheduled for installation.

Tryouts for the annual Belleville Area College talent show will begin Wednesday. The show is set for 7:30 p.m. Oct. 22.

Richard Brinkhoff, principal of Prather Elementary School, has been awarded a certificate in the State Board of Education's "Those Who Excel" program. The award is given to individuals who have contributed significantly to the well-being of the educational community. Granite Cityans Dorothy Bailey and Alice Zimmerman received such certificates in previous years.

The theme of this year's observance of National Newspaper Week, "A Free Press — Democracy's First Defense," helps focus attention on the essential role of a free press to the progress and development of democratic institutions. This occasion also serves as a reminder of the singular worth of a free press to the well-being of our country. As Thomas Jefferson wrote, "Our liberty depends on the freedom of the press."

Throughout National Newspaper Week, all Americans are pleased to note the many contributions of the men and women of our nation's press to the preservation of the First Amendment's guarantee of freedom of the press. Of the forces shaping the destiny of our civilization, none is more crucial to our future than the responsible reporting and truthful analysis of the events of our era. I commend your dedicated efforts in pursuit of their goals.

With the various commercial airlines announcing service cutbacks and others announcing pending bankruptcy, Quad-Cityans shopping at Crossroads Plaza recently were asked about the airlines' plight. Their reactions follow:

Fay Carlisle, Granite City
"It's the economy. It all boils down to economics. The airlines are not the only ones having trouble. Stores and businesses are having a difficult time too. I doubt that they're (the airlines) mismanaged — they seem pretty capable. As for re-regulating, I think there's too much regulation now."

Ed Votoupal, Granite City
"I don't think the airlines are purposely going broke, hoping to re-regulate. It's more the hard times. They may even be a bit greedy undercutting each other as they try to get more of the market. However, I don't think airlines should sacrifice passenger safety to remain in operation."

Charles Tracy, Granite City
"Any form of regulation by the federal government is harmful to the free enterprise system. The airlines should be like anything else — the law of supply and demand should dictate the market. If there are too many airlines, some are going to go out of business."

Florence Tipler, Granite City
"If there are too many airlines and too little passengers they (the airlines) are going to suffer. It's like any other business. Usually the big ones will make it and the little ones won't. Prices should be competitive."

Public resignation from GC Citizens Forum

To the Editor,
On Aug. 29, the Granite City Citizens' Forum held its regular meeting as Pascal Hall. President Don Conley presided, advocating citizen involvement and expression of ideas on topics discussed. During this meeting, Von Dee Cruise expressed his views, indicating the school strike to be a priority issue that was being passed by without any comments for resolution. I spoke up in support of Cruise's comments.

On Sept. 14, President Don Conley called a private meeting with me. After an hour of Mr. Conley's beat-around-the-bush conversation, I had been informed that: A) I am outspoken, B) I am a woman, C) I may have offended some people at the Aug. 29 meeting with use of the word 'damn' in my comments, D) Mr. Conley knows who is who in the Granite City political games, I do not, and E) President Conley indicated that I need to be more diplomatic and, in summary, whether I liked it or not, I am handicapped by the fact that I am a woman! If I offended anyone because of the above opinions of the president of the Granite City Citizens' Forum, please accept my public apology. Perhaps, if I had supported someone other than a township official, or addressed an issue other than the school strike (President Conley had informed me in the past that he had been asked to 'run' for the school board), I would not have been 'privately counseled' for having expressed my concerns in public.

As President Conley has released my name to the press on several occasions, without my prior knowledge or consent, I am now placed in a position to resign from Conley's organization in the press.

Now I can say that, in fact, I do know the true meaning of Mr. Conley's statement: "I want people to be aware of who I am and what I want to do."

In public, my resignation from the Granite City Citizens' Forum.

Sewer district detachment hearing is this Wednesday

Residents of the Special Service Area One for Madison County sanitary sewers who are not receiving sewer service will ask to be detached from the district during hearing Wednesday in Madison County Circuit Court.

The hearing will be in the courthouse in Edwardsville. Persons who petitioned to be removed will be notified of the time.

Nearly 100 persons have signed a petition to have their property removed from the district and signatures are being accepted through the day of the court hearing.

Miles said he was concerned that residents of the district who have been relieved of paying sewer taxes under a 1981 ordinance because they do not receive sewer service, may feel the problem is alleviated and will not seek to have their properties disconnected.

Only the circuit court can grant permanent relief by removing persons from the district, Miles noted, predicting that the county board's ordinance is likely to be rescinded after the court acts.

Only residents who have signed the petition in the sewer district office to be removed from the district may have their cases heard Wednesday. Any property owner who wishes to be represented by an attorney at the hearing may do so, Miles noted. Persons having questions about the detachment hearing or who wish to sign up for detachment may stop by the sewer district office, 301 E. Chain of Rocks Road, Mitchell, or telephone 931-3400.

Those signing the petition must bring a copy of the most recent tax bill and the legal description of the property to be disconnected. The description would be on a deed, contract of sale, title insurance policy or abstract of title. Accurate legal descriptions must be furnished to the court, Miles said.

There is no assurance that persons asking to be removed will be. Some persons who have sewer service also have petitioned, but Miles said it is not likely the court will allow them to detach.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON
NATIONAL NEWSPAPER WEEK
October 7-15, 1983

Since the founding of this nation, freedom of the press has been a fundamental tenet of Americanism. The economic freedom that has earned us such great bounty and the precious freedoms of speech and assembly would have little meaning or little value without the freedom of the press ever be ended. There is no more essential ingredient than a free, strong, and independent press to our continued success in what the Founding Fathers called our "noble experiment" in self-government.

Today, as we survey the globe, we find increasing hostility to the principles of open communication. The governments of many nations and certain international organizations advocate or enforce policies alien to a free flow of ideas. This promotion of censorship reflects a manifest fear of the truth and depredation of the great importance of liberty to human advancement.

'Serving the community for 80 years'

Unlicensed landfill

Venice Fire Department was called in to put out the blaze. We have had calls at various times of the dump burning trash openly at night, but nothing recently."

According to Hawkins, part of the site being used for the landfill is zoned R-4 (residential). But the owner cannot be cited for a violation under the Madison County zoning ordinance because the land was bought before zoning came into effect, thus protecting the landfill area under a zoning "grandfather clause."

"Three lots of the landfill are zoned M-1 (manufacturing) and a special use permit from the zoning board allows the owner to use the property as an auto salvage yard."

Hawkins said that if proof can be given that someone at the landfill is burning trash at night, he will see that the special use permit is revoked. "But I need evidence before I can do anything," he added.

Hawkins commented that such evidence is hard to come by. Some nearby residents are afraid to speak out, he asserted.

Hawkins has file photographs of the area, showing where the dump is located where some hog breeders may be residing.

"We can't keep people from living on the property because Madison County doesn't have a housing code. And we can't get these people on (a violation of) building permits. The only way we can stop them from living there is if they apply for an electrical hookup, and none have done that."

"I'm sure that if you go to the dump site is some kind of health hazard, but Madison County zoning can't do anything about the situation unless we get evidence or get an individual to sign a complaint," Hawkins concluded.

Mensing said, "The IEPA cannot tell people where they can and cannot live."

If people want to live next to an open dump, we can't stop them."

Clyde Wilkes, public relations representative for the Army Corps of Engineers, said the Corps issued a "cease and desist" order to the landfill last year when it was discovered that the operation was dumping trash without a permit.

Wilkes said the Corps has not inspected the area lately because the IEPA said it would handle the problem. He added that, if someone is still dumping trash improperly, he could be held in contempt of court. "Then we could take all kinds of action against him. A violation of this type is more serious than the original charge," Wilkes related.

It is being contended that dumping in the area has become so extensive that trash is blocking a culvert that normally takes water from farmland, carries it under Illinois Route 203 and drains it into Horseshoe Lake.

Walter "Shang" Greathouse, president of the Metropolitan Sanitary District (MSD), said he first became aware of blockage of the culvert about four months ago; two farmers complained that their land was flooded because the landfill had completely blocked the culvert.

Greathouse said that, to his knowledge, the district did not own the culvert. He attempted to find out who owned the culvert by contacting the Illinois Department of Transportation.

Transportation maintenance officials inspected the culvert but said the agency's only duty in this case is to maintain the natural flow of water.

They said the department owned a box culvert going into Horseshoe Lake and an extension going into landfill property, but the department did not own the pipe where drainage is being blocked.

Greathouse said he will pursue the matter of who owns the culvert.

The property owner also has been accused by Nichols of disturbing wildlife on Horseshoe Lake.

Nichols said that last year and this year, he saw unusual "kills" of ducks, fish and snapping turtles after trash burning had occurred.

"The ashes from the fire blew onto Horseshoe Lake, leaving a sooty substance on the water. I found dead turtles and birds in the area."

Nichols reported that last year he had representatives of the Department of Conservation and the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service at the site of the kills.

Mike Cochran, regional supervisor of Region 4 of the Illinois Department of Conservation, said Thursday he has personally walked the area where Nichols alleged finding dead wildlife, and could find no evidence of an unusual kill.

"I have never seen evidence to support Mr. Nichols' theory and I think that the chances of it happening are really remote," Cochran asserted.

"If there had been any snapping turtles killed, there would have been people involved (injured), too. The snapping turtle is one of the hardest animals around and it would take something highly toxic to destroy one of them."

Joe Janacek of the Corps of Engineers said he also was present when Nichols said there was an unusual kill. He, too, said he saw nothing to support the theory.

"It would say that the landfill was not posing an imminent threat to the area's wildlife, at least not from a toxic point of view," Janacek told the Press-Record.

Regardless, Nichols said, he is not giving up his efforts against the landfill. However, he added, he does not plan to sign or submit a formal complaint to Hawkins.

"This community has been good to us through thick and thin. It was very fair, trying to receive so many letters the last few days asking when we are reopening. We are very glad for the support in the Granite City area."

"This is a good town and a good market for us and I believe we have improved an already good product. We are glad to do it for Granite City and the Quad-City area," Cohen concluded.

been on upgrading the store's building materials, lumber, hardware, tools and electrical goods and plumbing departments. The lumber area alone has been expanded by 20 percent over the old building.

"Consumers look to Central Hardware as a building materials store. We talked to a lot of our customers and the majority wanted (that). It was a question of being pretty good to many people or being doggone good to your populace," Cohen said.

Shoppers still will find air conditioners, microwave ovens, dehumidifiers and other items. Also, when the Central chain makes a good buy on a large quantity of washing machines, televisions, stereos or some other product, it will be featured at all Central stores.

Under the plan, the Army will move into space currently occupied by the VA and the VA will move into an unoccupied warehouse at the Granite City Army base.

Not only will this give the VA increased office space, but the Army is offering it to the government agency rent free. The VA currently pays $794,000 rent annually in St. Louis. Yearly utility costs for the Army warehouse are estimated at $300,000.

The move will cost the VA between $2.1 million and $2.5 million but Army officials have agreed to absorb up to $1 million of the anticipated cost.

Congressman Melvin Price (D, East St. Louis) said he was pleased with the VA's decision to move to Granite City. "This is a good, cost-effective decision. Barring any unforeseen delays, the actual relocation should take place late this (fiscal) year."

Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler also is pleased with the move's approval. "I was concerned that Cong. Young's public disagreement with the move might have a detrimental effect on the VA's decision, so I called Rep. Price and asked him to try to nullify Young's actions."

"We've (Granite City) taken enough money from St. Louis and St. Louis County people. We've got some good people over here who apparently have some power."

"The move is really significant; not just for the 80 or 100 people that it will bring to Granite City, but because it demonstrates the potential this city has for being a good location for offices and businesses."

"The corridor of Highway Three is close to St. Louis. It's close to the airport. It's a terrific strategic point to locate," Mayor Schuler continued.

"It's nice to see that someone has finally recognized the potential that Granite City has."

E.O.C.

communications office for the DCCA, has indicated that this "exit conference" will be a closed meeting and that results will be made public several weeks later.

In other business Thursday, Executive Director Williams informed board members that he had instituted a four-day work week for many EOC employees on Oct. 3, and indicated that he chose the four-day work week as a cost-saving plan to help the agency overcome some of its financial difficulties.

According to Williams, the cost-saving plan will save the EOC $47,233. John Ervin of Venice, chairman of the EOC board of directors, previously had refused to say whether institution of the four-day work week was an administrative order or resulted from action of the board.

Board members voted unanimously to accept Williams' order, with member Joseph Pukach stating, "The board needs to go on record as having approved this plan."

The board voted that the plan would be temporary and indicated that a five-day workweek would be reinstituted after the "audit situation" has been eliminated.

Williams assailed recent newspaper reports, saying, "After this audit situation, we'll find out (when a five-day week will be reinstated). Don't believe what you read in the newspapers. I think that we'll be vindicated."

Board Member Doerr agreed with Williams, saying that the audit will show that the EOC is "faced with a matter of interpretation of regulations."

"I went over the audits," Doerr related. "The state said it to interpret one way and we interpreted the other. It doesn't mean they're wrong or we're wrong, just different."

"It will all come out in the meeting on the 18th, when everything will be cleared up," he concluded.

Board members agreed to enter into another contract with the state to continue cheese distribution in the county. Although Williams reported that the cheese distribution represented a financial loss to the EOC, board members voted to continue the program and conduct a study of regulations and costs during the contractual time limit.

Williams maintained that the distribution presents problems because of unavailability of volunteers and the lack of a large facility to accommodate lines of people waiting for the cheese.

According to Williams, the big issue is "the fair and equitable distribution of cheese" during extremely hot or cold weather conditions. He is currently negotiating with Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville officials to obtain a distribution site.

EDWARDSVILLE. The Granite City High School football Warriors traveled to Edwardsville High School Friday night with a record of 1-2. The Tigers were 3-1 and considered one of the better teams in the Metro-East. The Warriors weren't supposed to beat the Tigers.

"Oh Yeah we were," Paul Ballew, the 6-foot-7, 280-pound tackle commented in the waning moments of the 14-0 shutout of Edwardsville. "We've got to be tough now. We're going to be tough."

Who's to argue? Certainly not the Tigers. "They're kiddy katz, not Tigers," another football warrior yelled as the team rushed onto the field congratulating each other on their second consecutive shutout.

The offensive connection between quarterback Shane Cole and split end Tom Adamitis put the points on the board, but the story of the night was the Warrior defense.

It wasn't until the second half that Edwardsville was able to cross mid-field. And only once did they penetrate the Granite City 40-yard line.

"The kids played with a lot of heart," Warrior head coach Tom Wyrostek said after the game as he received congratulations from many of the 400 or so fans who attended the game. Wyrostek didn't want to single out any particular players for credit because he felt it was a team effort that defeated the Tigers.

"They went after it this week," he continued. "They believed in themselves."

From the beginning, the Warrior defense proved to be too much for Edwardsville. On their first possession, the Warriors forced them to punt, starting their first series on the their own 32-yard line.

Seven minutes later Granite City scored on a diving catch by Tom Adamitis in the end zone. Wyrostek was pleased with the offensive performance of Shane Cole.

"He did a super job throwing for us tonight," he said of his junior quarterback. "He was off a little in the beginning of the season. We kept talking to him so he wouldn't lose his confidence. That was the thing."

Edwardsville was helpless to move the ball against Granite City's defense. It was their third possession before they got a first down. Moving the ball from their own 22-yard line, Edwardsville ran for two first downs, reaching the 46. But two plays later, Granite City junior Eric Graves made the first of his two interceptions.

Three plays after the interception, Granite City was forced to punt, but the second time of the night, Edwardsville's Gary Glaser failed to catch the football. This time Granite City's Kurt Hylla and James Moad recovered on Edwardsville's 51-yard line.

Two plays later Cole was intercepted but three plays after that Granite City returned the favor with Hylla's second interception of the game. Hylla returned the ball 22 yards to Granite City's 47 yard line to set up their second scoring drive.

On the first play from scrimmage, Cole fired a short pass to Adamitis, who lateraled to James Kindle for a 16-yard gain.

On the next play, Cole hit Mark Whitaker in a crowd for a 10-yard pickup as well as 15 penalty yards on a pass interference. Cole then hit Adamitis from the 23 for the second score. The extra point was good and the score was 14-0 at the intermission.

In the second half, the defense only allowed five total first downs, and early in the third quarter came the defensive play of the game.

With the defense shutting off all Edwardsville options, Tiger quarterback Jeff Krebs began taking things into his own hands.

With the ball on his own 11-yard line, Krebs moved the ball 36 yards in the next three plays.

Wyrostek fired his team up from the sidelines.

"Let's go. We've got to help them make this stop. We've got to fire 'em up."

It worked. On the next play, Krebs kept again, but was held to only a three-yard gain.

On the ensuing play, Chris Luffman, 6-foot-1, 240-pound tackle, pursued Krebs, throwing him for a 15-yard loss with a solo tackle.

On the next play, Krebs picked up 11 yards but was short nine of the first down. Edwardsville was forced to punt.

Edwardsville stopped Granite City cold on the next series and a high Warrior punt resulted in Edwardsville getting great field position on the Warrior 34-yard line.

Two plays later, Adamitis intercepted at the 20, giving the ball back to Granite City, stopping the Edwardsville threat.

Granite City was again stopped and forced to punt on fourth and four. Edwardsville was called for roughing the kicker and assessed 15 yards and automatic first down.

The Edwardsville defense rallied and Granite City pulled a fake punt, giving up the ball on their own 20. On the next play, Krebs broke for a long gain but fumbled.

Granite City recovered and ran the clock out for their second victory of the year.

"It was a total effort from everybody," assistant coach Bob Wegemeier said. "The whole bunch of kids."

And a fired up Shane Cole added, "We had the heart this time."

E Panthers win Governor's Cup soccer tourney

MACOMB — The championship game of the Governor's Cup soccer tournament was a battle of experience and polished technique versus youth and emotion.

The experienced and polished Eastern Illinois University team defeated the young and emotional Western Illinois University squad 4-0 in the championship game Saturday.

For once, the tournament champion was not a surprise. Eastern, now 10-0 for the season and the fourth ranked team in the NCAA Division I poll, surprised no one with their superior skills.

Even without their top scorer, English sophomore Neil Swindells, the Panthers still outscored their opponents 8-0 in the tournament. Randy DeRousse, a senior defender for Eastern and a Granite City South graduate, said depth is the difference this year.

"The difference between this year's and last year's team is that we have enough depth. The fact we scored eight goals in two games without him shows that we have a lot of depth," DeRousse said.

Last season, Eastern was knocked out of the first round by North Texas State. This year, DeRousse and the four other senior starters hope to make sure that doesn't happen again.

"We look forward to play our best ball the rest of the season and make the NCAA final. We were too cocky last year and lost some we shouldn't have. We want to make it this year," DeRousse said.

On the other hand, Western was the underdog of the tournament. No one expected the Leathernecks to win a game in the tournament, but Western shocked Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville 1-0 Friday in a first round game of the tournament.

SIUE went on to take third Saturday with a 2-1 victory over Northern Illinois University.

"We wanted to show (SIUE Coach Bob) Guelker and show his St. Louis players that we can play ball too," said Western midfielder John Menendez, a freshman out of Granite City South.

"We were fired up for that game, and maybe we were a little tired for Eastern."

Tony Segobiano, a Western freshman fullback out of Granite City South echoed Menendez's sentiments. "We wanted to show big-time SIU with all the big-time St. Louis players what they missed on the East side of the river," he said.

Segobiano was intent in helping Western upset Eastern as well. Early in the first half, Segobiano fired the ball into the goal, but the referees said he was offside and disallowed the goal.

"If that goal would have counted, I think the game would have been a lot different than it was," Segobiano said.

However, Western's missed opportunity seemed to fire up Eastern. Although the Panthers controlled the game, they didn't play with the intensity a fourth ranked team prior to the disallowed goal.

Eastern didn't score until 24:31 when All-American forward Damien Kelly scored off a pass from Tom Isirov. Eastern defender Greg Mellor took a corner kick from senior Aldo Esposito and headed it in the goal at 28:10.

Midfielder Guy Callipari closed the first half with an unassisted goal at 44:46 and forced Western to play catch-up with Eastern.

Kelly scored his second goal of the game at 62:33 with a shot from 10 yards out for the final score. Freshman defender Kevin Kyle picked up the assist.

Barry Grote, a freshman fullback from Granite City South, also started the game. Granite City North products Brian Levin, a midfielder, and Rick Branding, a goalkeeper, also saw action in the finals.

Eastern's defense, of which DeRousse plays a major part up, gave Western no shots on goal for the game. Eastern took 12 shots on goal and 21 shots altogether.

"The team was looking forward to playing SIU because we wanted to play a tough team," DeRousse said. "But I look forward to playing any of the Illinois team because I get to see people whom I played with in high school."

The toughest part of Eastern's schedule is coming soon. Eastern travels to Texas to meet North Texas State and Southern Methodist and then travel to St. Louis Oct. 22 to meet undefeated St. Louis University.

SIUE 0

SIUE went into the Governor's Cup as the second best team, and Western was pegged as the worst team. Western didn't look like the worst team in the opener with the Cougars.

Western stayed with the Cougars most of the way, and the persistence paid off at 53:50. Forward Norm Cristie scored from a pass from Menendez for the only score of the game.

The Cougars had a goal taken away at 22:00 when Bill Stallings was called for offside before scoring a goal off a pass from Bruce Bellinger.

The Leathernecks placed nine shots on goal as opposed to seven shots for the Cougars.

"We were really up for this game," said Levin. "We haven't been that up for a game all season, and I think that helped us."

Western's defense was able to control Eastern's speed, but the Cougars were giving Western the chance to widen out its offense and set up more shots.

"We were prepared for this game," Grote said. "We lost three games in a row that we could have won, but we didn't win because we make the mistakes younger teams make. In one year or maybe two, we're going to be pretty tough."

NORTHERN 1

SIUE got back on the winning track Saturday in the third place game. The Cougars came up with a goal each in the first and the second halves to salvage something out of the tournament.

This year was only the second year in the 12-year history of the tournament that the Cougars were not in the championship game. SIUE had also played in the last eight championship games, prior to this year.

Senior forward Steve Schell scored his first goal of the season at 22:07 after he intercepted a goal kick from Northern goalie Bob Johnson. Bill Stallings scored the Cougars' other goal, 73:15 with assists going to Dan Malloy and Tim Loughman.

Northern, despite being a man short in the second half, scored at 63:18 when Alie Sundland scored from an assist by Johan Berghesh. Both are from Norway.

In the Warriors' first match of the day they lost to host team, Collinsville, 15-10.

Tami Jones got the Warriors started in the first game serving three points for her team. Collinsville came back with strong serving by Suzy Judge and Melissa Elliot to move ahead 7-4.

Warrior Michelle Morgan got her team back in the ball game by serving four straight points, to tie the game at seven. Included in this rally for the Warriors was a strong spike by Lisa Lilley and an important defensive block by Jones.

Collinsville again got strong serving from Judge, who served the final five points, and went on to win 15-10.

In the second game the Warriors looked flat. Collinsville jumped to a 6-0 lead before Warrior Vicki Smith served four straight points to get her team

In JuCo Soccer Stars shutout Meramec, but lose goalie

GRANITE CITY — There's good news and there's bad news.

The good news is that the Granite City Center Stars handed Forest Park Community College, the number five ranked junior college team in the nation, their first shutout of the season, 1-0.

The bad news is that the Stars' only bonafide goalkeeper, Joe Lemaster, was red-carded in the last 10 minutes of the match and will be suspended from the next conference game.

With nine minutes remaining, a foul was called against Forest Park's Marty Pike in the goal area as Lemaster pursued the ball. Lemaster pursued Pike who subsequently elbowed Lemaster in the face. Lemaster returned the insult with a kick to Pike's posterior, then having to be restrained by teammates.

After a tight first half, the "Granite City North Connection" scored on a crossing pass from Tim Dean to Benny Nolan. The pass was perfect and Nolan headed the ball into the corner of the net over the outstretched hands of the Forest Park goalie.

After the GCC score, the game picked up in intensity as Forest Park sensed the coming defeat.

GCC coach Larry Petri noted that after the GCC score, "Emotions started to flare, and when they do you have to stay in control. If you can't that's what happens," he said of the altercation.

"It might have helped us pull together," Petri continued. "We did a fine job in the last eight minutes. If they'd tested the keeper they might have had the advantage. Our fellows pulled through."

But now the Stars will face Meramec Community College Tuesday without Lemaster, relying on the services of an untested keeper, Rich Sharp.

In the last eight minutes of the contest Saturday afternoon, Sharp wasn't forced to make a play, primarily due to the play of the GCC defense.

"When adversity strikes like it did today," Petri said, "they pulled together a little bit and didn't let them have any shots. We didn't want to get him (Sharp) tested."

Despite the inexperience, Petri is optimistic about Sharp.

"I hope he can do the job for us," he said of his young goalkeeper. "He's a gutsy kid. I think he'll pull us through."

The big win against Forest Park will help his team, Petri said.

"I think we'll go into that game (against Meramec) with a little confidence," he said. "This win will make us more confident. They're going to have to play well defensively as a team if they test our goalkeepers."

"They'll come out shooting a ton at us," Petri continued. "Our defense and midfielders will have to do well that day."

Visiting coach Jim Bokren wasn't surprised at the play of the GCC Stars despite their 0-3 conference record coming into the game.

"We hadn't seen them play this year," he said. "But I expected the type of game they had. I told our kids they had to score a couple of goals early."

But they weren't able to get those goals, primarily because of the play of the GCC defense and Lemaster. It was the first time this season that the nationally ranked Missouri team had been shut out.

The Stars victory was their fifth in a row and second of the weekend as well as their seventh in their last eight outings.

On Friday afternoon at the Center, they shut out Sault Valley Community College, 3-0 and throughout the second half played mostly reserves to give much-needed experience.

"It was a rematch," Petri said. "We thought we could handle them and did. In the game two goals were scored in the first half and one in the first ten minutes of the second."

Benny Nolan scored two goals and Rick Moder, a sweeping fullback, scored one.

In Tournament Of Champions Finale

North Stars shine brightest; win tourney title

GRANITE CITY — The McCluer High School North Stars entered the Granite City High Peeps Tournament of Champions last Wednesday as the only undefeated team among a field of 12 teams. And, Saturday evening they exited the tournament the same way, with that unbeaten record in tact and the tournament championship plaque in hand.

The North Stars, now 16-0, defeated the DeSmet Spartans 2-0 Saturday night in the championship game. Earlier that afternoon, the Stars defeated the Vianney Golden Griffins, last year's Missouri state champs, 1-0 to set the stage for the championship bout with DeSmet.

In the third-place pairing featuring Vianney and Riverview Gardens, the Rams defeated the Golden Griffins 1-0 in the one-on-one shootout which followed knotted regulation play, two five-minute overtimes and the best of five penalty kicks.

Riverview's Dan Englehard pushed a shot past Vianney's Steve Bliefernich on the second Riverview shootout attempt give the Rams the victory and a third-place finish.

The closeness of the third-place match was only a prelude of what was to come in the championship match.

McCluer, which proved to be the seventh-seeded team, it would be coming into the tourney, joins the elite group of champions which includes past tournament winners Vianney and the Warriors.

"I hope everyone can appreciate what we've accomplished here today," McCluer North Coach Ray Stahl said. "To score one against Vianney this afternoon and then come back here tonight and beat DeSmet says a lot for our guys.

"To be honest, we didn't know if we could play three games in 24 hours of any kind intensity, but we did it. That says a lot for our team attitude," Stahl said.

Similarly, team attitude was the reason DeSmet Spartan Coach Greg Vitello cited for his team's second place finish in the tournament.

"We played very well tonight," Vitello began. "The difference was we failed to capitalize, whereas they took the breaks we gave them and turned them into goals."

"We had no easy game in the tournament. We played hard every game and that's encouraging for this young group of athletes. In my book they're the winners," Vitello said. "I wouldn't trade this bunch of guys away for any plaques or trophies."

McCluer's ticket to the championship included a sizzling offense and a strong defense, whose goals, Tim Schulte, was named the tournament's most valuable player (see related story).

While McCluer's defense allowed just one goal prior to the championship game (against Chaminade in the opening round), the North Stars' offense overpowered its opponents, scoring nine goals. The second place Spartans, however, were even more impressive going into the finale. Through the semi-finals, DeSmet's defense had not allowed a goal, while its offense had pierced its opponents defense to score 10 unanswered goals. But in the championship match, McCluer changed all that.

Through 40 minutes of play, the Spartans and the North Stars battled to an even halftime 0-0 tie, neither team dominating. Indicative of two top-notch squads, play was concentrated in the midfield. Whatever offense the Stars' Mike Ritchie and Mike Dempster initiated, the Spartans' Steve Nikodem and company neutralized. And vice versa.

But, it was only a matter of time before something would happen — before a critical mistake. You could feel it coming.

Four minutes and 55 seconds into the third quarter, (44:55), McCluer got the break it was waiting for. Stars' back Kevin Gibson set up a beautiful cross shot. Ritchie was in position to make the shot and put McCluer on the board 1-0.

McCluer's goal did two things. It provided a tension release for McCluer while forcing DeSmet to think offense, thus cutting down on its defense. The net result was a second, game clinching goal by the North Stars.

At 65:30, the North Stars picked up an insurance goal as senior midfielder Jeff Crowder pushed a deflected shot by Ritchie off DeSmet goalie Rick Kron for the final, clinching score.

Despite the shutout, DeSmet's offense was incessant, outshooting the North Stars 19-14. Fouls were nearly even with McCluer committing just two more, 12-10. The North Stars led in corner kicks 5-2 while McCluer goalie Schulte managed two more saves than DeSmet's Rick Kron.

Rams' defense frustrates Warriors

GRANITE CITY — You could sense it coming. Granite City's 1-0 loss to Riverview Gardens Friday afternoon in the third day of the Tournament of Champions.

The Warriors were tentative. They hadn't really played well — not like they're capable — since the Quincy Senior game two weeks ago. A game the Warriors convincingly won 4-1.

Since then, the Warriors lost a poorly fought game to Collinsville, 3-1, and had picked up a pair of victories against Cahokia and Alton. But those were games they should have won.

Their confidence was slipping. Both at home and elsewhere. In the Chicago Sting High School Newsletter, for example, the Warriors slipped from the top spot for the first time in two years in the writers' poll. Evanston is now rated the top pro soccer team in the state, followed by the Warriors and Collinsville in third.

Sting Newsletter voting coaches, however, still have faith in Granite City as they once again voted the Warriors the top team followed by Evanston and Glenbrook North in third and Collinsville in fourth.

If there was a consolation in the tourney for the Warriors, it was that they went the farthest of any Illinois team. Each of the three other Illinois teams — Collinsville, New Trier and Glenbrook — each lost first round games to fall from contention for a final round berth. At least the Warriors entered competition Friday as a possible contender for the title match.

Collinsville, like the Warriors, finished the tournament 1-1 while both Glenbrook and New Trier were winless at 0-2.

In the Warriors' match against Riverview, they simply waited too long to begin an offense. Even a first quarter Ram goal failed to get a rise out of the Warrior offensive squad.

At 15:21, Riverview's Dan Englehard broke away from the Stars' defense to score an unassisted. His shot caught the upper left corner of the goal, just out of Job Blasingame's reach.

"We just didn't come alive early enough to do any good," explained Warrior coach Gene Baker. "We're just not playing with enough emotion to win. They played uninspired."

Baker said the Warriors are not playing with a competitive attitude within the team. An aspect he deems as essential to continued success.

Baker couldn't have been more right. The Warriors' defense looked as complacent. Complacent in its attack and defense.

In fact it wasn't until final 24 minutes of the game that the Warriors looked as though they really wanted to win.

It was about 56 minutes into the contest before the Warriors finally came alive. When they did, they did everything but put the ball in the net.

At 55:50, the Warrior barrage began. Troy Moore's shot on goal was on target but Riverview's Dan Mahrey deflected the shot just above the cross bar.

At 58:20, the Warriors, it seemed were sure to get a goal. Frank Soellinger's shot on goal but Ram back Marty Rocco was there to deflect it away. Moore picked up the deflection and again fired at the goal. Mahrey dove to make the stop. But still, the ball remained in play.

Matt Sheridan settled and fired. Again it was on to the mark but this time Mahrey smothered it.

At this point, the Warriors were dominating offensively like no other team in the tourney. During the last 24 minutes, the ball crossed midfield four times, twice in the final seconds of the fourth quarter as Riverview did whatever it could to clear the ball.

Granite City dominated the shot count, 24 to five. In the second half alone, the Warriors outshot Riverview 17-2 as they frantically tried to get even with the Rams.

But it wasn't to happen. As valiantly as Granite City battled in the last 24 minutes, it wasn't enough to make up for the 56-minute lapse which preceded.

With six minutes remaining, Riverview sensed the upset. It athletes were standing on their benches, cheering for the victory. For them the clock wasn't moving fast enough. For the Warriors, time was wasting away.

With 1:11 remaining, it became evident just how frustrated the Warriors had become. Nathan Crane, the Warriors' senior forward, was yellow carded for tripping. His departure slowed the Warrior offensive and was promotion of the final outcome.

It became clear within the final 20 seconds that a Ram victory was imminent. The Rams' Mike Caples cleared the ball past midfield as the seconds waned.

Mike Houston batted the ball back on Riverview's side of the field but Jim Iman's high kick fired it right back. It was over. Riverview hung on for the victory.

According to Ram Coach Dean Schulenberg, the Rams executed their strategy to perfection.

"We played our kind of game," Schulenberg said. "We had to get a goal early and then drop back to and play defense. We knew we couldn't match them for offense so we hoped to beat them with our defense."

At the half, Schulenberg instructed his team to drop back on defense and protect its slim lead. Riverview's lead wasn't much, but as it turned out, it was enough to win.

"We have reputation as a defensive team. That's the only way we could come in here and hope to play with the caliber of this tourney."

Going into the tournament, Riverview was considered a long shot to finish third in the tourney. At the time, against Granite City, the reigning Illinois state champion, and Vianney, the reigning Missouri state champion, the Rams did not yield a goal.

After the victory over Granite City, the Rams posted a 1-0 victory over Vianney Saturday for third place. Riverview's Englehard lifted the Rams to victory over the Golden Griffins by perfectly placing a shot in the shootout which followed two five-minute overtimes and five penalty kicks.

With a 2-0 victory over DeSmet, "I don't know what to say," Schulte said after being named the MVP. "It's a great honor, especially in a tournament like this one. It was our defense. Write that down. I was voted MVP because of our defense. This award is as much theirs as it mine," Schulte said.

Schulte joins a elite group of MVP's which includes last year's Bill Henry of Granite City and St. Louis University High's Steve Maurer.

MADISON — The last time the Madison Trojan football team won two games in a row, quarterback Victor Valentine and running backs Kelly Scrum, Shawn Brown and Avery Blockton were sixth grade students.

Until Friday, the last time Trojans were able to put two wins together was in the 1977. However, the rejuvenated Trojan football team has done it again in 1983. After rolling past Columbia 22-6 the previous Friday, Madison came back Friday to defeat Waterloo 40-14.

The Trojans, 2-3 for the season and out of playoff contention, are still trying to win and win big. This year's Trojans realize they are the building blocks for a successful program.

"We're tired of losing all the time and we want to win this year," said Blockton, who did more than his part in the Madison massacre. Blockton intercepted two passes for touchdowns and scored on a 50-yard run on offense.

Although the boredom of losing was an incentive to break the losing tradition, Madison players also believe a major factor is the presence of new head coach Don Smith.

"We have a lot of desire to win, and we know we can do. Coach Smith has made us football players," said Valentine, who passed for two touchdowns in the game. Steve Petrosky, the Trojan center, also credited Smith for the improvement. "He explains things much better than other coaches we've had. He goes over our mistakes over and over until we get it right."

The combination of Valentine and tight end Deland Crockwell combined for the first two touchdowns. The Trojans set up the first touchdown with a 17-yard run by Blockton and a 13-yard run by Scrum. Valentine then connected with Crockwell for a 27-yard touchdown pass with 7:23 left in the first quarter.

With only 1:56 to go in the quarter and first down at the Trojan 40-yard line, Valentine threw left and hit Crockwell for a 60-yard touchdown pass. Shawn Brown's conversion run made the score 14-0.

"We're giving our quarterback three more seconds to think than we did last year, and I think that has made a difference," said Trojan offensive guard Jeff Bridick.

After the two touchdowns, the Trojan offense couldn't muster any more scoring drives in the first half, so Blockton took over.

Waterloo managed to pick up 45 yards on a late second quarter drive, but Blockton spoiled Waterloo's plans. Blockton picked off a Chris Holston pass at the Trojan 33 and took it down the right side for a touchdown.

If that wasn't enough, Blockton intercepted another Holston pass. Waterloo's first play after the Trojan kickoff. Blockton again took the ball down the right side for 45 yards and a touchdown. The touchdowns, which came within 32 seconds of each other, gave Madison a 34-0 lead at halftime.

After two failed possessions in the third quarter, Madison's offense got back on track. Two offenses penalties against Waterloo helped the Trojans as did a 20-yard pass to Crockwell from Valentine. On the next play, the Trojans were called for an illegal block, but Blockton made up for that with his 50-yard touchdown run.

Madison's final score came on an eight play, 48-yard drive. Scrum capped the drive with a six-yard touchdown run and a conversion run to put the Trojans ahead 40-8 with 7:18 left in the game.

Early in the fourth quarter, Ronnie Redder scored a Waterloo touchdown on a one yard run. Waterloo scored its other touchdown on an 18 yard pass from Holston to Brian Pace. The ball deflected out of the hands of Madison's Darnell Marshall right into Pace's grasp.

But the reasons why the Trojans have seemed to put it together are attitude and discipline.

"Our attitude is much better this year, and the discipline Coach Smith has given us has helped," Blockton said. "He makes us come to practice or else we don't play, and he shows how the right way to do it."

"That help us play better" and helps us win. It makes the school week go much faster when you win," Blockton said.

Play befitting the Tournament of Champions

THE BEST OF THE BEST. Although the Granite City Warriors didn't win their second straight Tournament of Champions, thanks to a 1-0 defeat to Riverview Gardens, the tournament had a fitting ending anyway. McCluer North, the runner-up to the Warriors in last year's tournament, won this year's tournament Saturday with a 2-0 victory over DeSmet. All four semifinalists came from Missouri this year.

DeSmet forward Rick Martin puts his head into a pass past Guy Gallagher of Glenbrook North in a Thursday game. DeSmet's 1-0 win ensured the Spartans a spot in the semifinals.

This year's tournament champions, the McCluer North Stars gather around their goalkeeper, Tim Schulte, who was named the most valuable player of the tournament and holds the MVP award.

Steve Petrunch of the Warriors tries to keep the ball away from Mehlville's Scott Boeger Wednesday. Another Mehlville player lays stunned by an earlier play.

Lady Vikings down Red Devilettes

The Venice High School volleyball team has had a tough time lately. Most recently, the Red Devilettes had a difficult time coping with St. Paul of Highland Thursday, as they lost the pairing 15-5, 9-15 and 13-15. The defeat was Venice's second regular conference loss and third season loss this season to St. Paul. Venice played well in their win in the first game, according to Coach Annetta Ohlendorf.

"We played an excellent first game, but the girls got hyper over the win and let down the second game." The Red Devilettes managed to get back on track in the third game. They kept the game close, but little mistakes lost the game for them.

"The girls get really down after a couple of small mistakes, and it's hard to get them back up, that seems to be our main problem against St. Paul and other really good teams." Venice's next match is Tuesday at 4:30 against Worden at Worden.

Park board hires winter employees

The Granite City Board of Park Commissioners has approved the hiring of winter seasonal employees, as recommended by David Nolan, director of parks and recreation.

The commissioners last week made one amendment to the wages of concession workers after the amount recommended was questioned by Commissioner Nancy Sanders. The hourly rate of Mary Holder was changed from $2.40 to $2.35, which is the rate to be paid to the other two concession workers.

Nolan said he had misinterpreted the pay policy of the board and agreed that the three should be paid the same hourly rate.

The minutes of several meetings were approved with some changes and the treasurer's report was accepted as presented.

Before the finance report was approved by the commissioners, several entries were questioned and one entry was clarified. A check to petty cash was entered as a reimbursement of $919.10 to Commissioner Sanders for a hotel room on the Amara, Iowa, trip.

The entry was clarified to read that the reimbursement was for a personal check that Miss Sanders had written for accommodations for the second night of the trip. The amount covered the cost of rooms for 44 persons.

Nolan was asked by Commissioner Barry Loman to make the finance report entries more clear in the future.

On a motion by Miss Sanders, the board unanimously accepted the audit report of the Park and Recreation Area Development Grant Program. James Degnan, a certified public accountant, performed the audit of the $12,500 grant from the Illinois Department of Conservation, which provided funds for the purchase and planting of trees in the various parks within the district.

The board also authorized payment of $500 to Degnan for the audit and report. Total cost of the project was $13,000, with the difference coming from park district funds.

Park Board President George Sykes allowed Alex Toth, a member of the Granite City Citizens' Forum, to address the board.

Toth stressed that neither he nor the group were at the meeting to dictate to the board, rather to provide input to the board. Members of the Citizens' Forum have been in attendance at the past several board meetings and Toth voiced the group's assessment of the board's actions.

On the whole, the group was pleased by the conscientious efforts of the park commissioners, but did question the recently enacted pay schedule.

Toth said there seemed to be an "inequity in the pay rates" between the park security guards and some umpires. He pointed out that some umpires make $9.50 per game, which rarely last much more than an hour, while some guards make less than $10 per hour, according to the pay schedule adopted by the board.

He again stressed that neither he nor the citizens' group is trying to dictate to the board, but rather provide input.

Sykes thanked him and the group members for attending and indicated that the board is aware of inequities in the pay schedule, but has been unable to find a solution to them.

Commissioner Jack Hood said, "I am offended by your comments. We all know what we are doing. Hood told Toth and the other members of the Citizens' Forum who were present that they were always welcome to attend the park board meetings, which are open to the public by law, "but don't dictate."

Toth replied saying, "I thought I made it clear, we don't want to dictate."

Commissioner Loman said that he agreed with Toth about the inequities in the pay schedule, especially the umpires' pay. "We are dictated to — by the umpires. It's been said that if we don't pay them what they want, we won't have a program. I don't think that's true."

Board member John "Jeff" Worthen defended the umpires' pay, saying that other athletic programs in the area pay their umpires amounts comparable to the park district's pay schedule.

He warned the other board members that, if the district doesn't keep in step with the pay rates in the area, the umpires now working for the park district will probably officiate where the pay is higher. He indicated that this could result in the loss of, or at least substantial cuts in, the park district's athletic programs.

In other business, the board authorized the reimbursement of $20 to Mrs. Edith Ryan. She had paid the amount for a reservation for the Arcola, Ill., trip sponsored by the park district, but became ill the night before the trip and was unable to attend.

Approved a request by Norma Walton for use of the Lincoln Place Community Center on Nov. 7 for the delivery site of the Girl Scout cookies, to be distributed here.

Granted approval to the Metro-East Chapter of the March of Dimes for use of a softball diamond for a benefit game. All proceeds are to go to the March of Dimes.

The board also authorized Nolan to coordinate an Arbor Day program with the Granite City School District. It will take place in late April, 1984.

Nolan explained that the state Department of Conservation annually sponsors a tree purchasing program to promote Arbor Day. He said that saplings are available through the program for $17 per tree.

He said that an educational program involving Arbor Day and tree planting could be coordinated by the park district's head gardener, Robert Frisch. He would speak to the children participating in the program.

Nolan also reported to the board that the park district's sports award night has been scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 15. The event will have a new format and that trophy presentations will be done throughout the evening. Several short films might be included in the program.

The director also reported on several ice rink promotions and will report back to the board with definite plans at the next board meeting scheduled for Wednesday, Oct. 26.

Residents should expect loud anti-startling noises

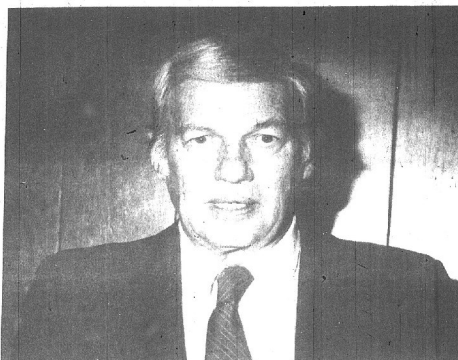

Granite City residents upset by loud noises are being warned to stay away from areas targeted for startling removal measures this week.

City Inspector Emerald Dawes said city workers will be discharging cannons and blank shots tomorrow through Thursday in an effort to frighten and uproot the startling bird population.

The campaign will be conducted at 27th and Kate streets and at Sheridan and Hodges avenues. The noise will begin about 5:30 to 6 each evening and conclude at dusk.

The police department will be setting up temporary roadblocks.

skills being taught as the English teacher," Mrs. Folkerts commented.

She added that the administration is asking parents to do their share by using correct English in the home.

"All family members should show their child by word and deed that English is important. Children need to understand there is little place in the future world for people who cannot use the language."

The curriculum director said parents also should help their children by checking a child's homework, listening to the pupil read, "demanding" that all written work be legible and correctly spelled, and correcting the child when he or she speaks incorrectly. "When we are going to raise our standards for students, all must help," she emphasized.

Mrs. Folkerts said the decision to emphasize English came out of a two-year study conducted by 13 teachers and herself. She said the committee had determined "which skills should be taught on which levels so that students would have the same educational background, regardless of which school they attend."

They also announced that enough donations had been raised by local citizens to send all fourth grade students of the Madison, Venice and St. Mary-St. Mark schools to a St. Louis Symphony youth concert.

Mrs. Folkerts said that, in the past, the fourth grade students had been sponsored by the now-defunct Venice-Madison Arts Council but that the Arts Council treasury had been depleted.

"It looked very dim for the fourth graders to attend the symphony this year," she said. "But three organizations donated enough money to purchase tickets, thus providing each student and teacher a ticket to hear one of the best symphony orchestras in the United States."

Organizations contributing money for the event were the Madison Progressive Women's Club, Madison Junior Service Club and Madison Parents Club.

"The people of Madison are some of the finest in the country and have come through once more," said Mrs. Folkerts. "Those who donated are an inspiration for all to see. They are visionary not only in backing education as a hope of the future, but also in realizing that all who live in Madison and Venice are tied together with a mutual bond."

Each club member has perceived that all citizens in the two cities are interrelated and must be linked with mutual respect and concern.

According to Mrs. Folkerts, half the fourth grade students at Louis Baer School will attend a "Back to Basics: Musical Sounds and Styles" concert at 9 a.m. Wednesday, Nov. 2. The other half at Louis Baer will attend the "Spanish Fiesta" concert at 9:30 a.m. Feb. 22.

Students of Venice Grade School and St. Mary-St. Mark will attend the "Octaves and Arias" concert at 9:30 a.m. April 11.

Also at the meeting, Wade James, assistant superintendent of Madison schools, announced that the Madison Rotary Club will entertain student leaders from Madison and Venice schools at noon this Wednesday in the Madison Recreation Center.

says that, at age 16, students could leave the regular school and enroll in an optional educational program, perhaps like the alternative school that is operated in Granite City. Attendance would be mandatory.

There would be incentives for high schools to develop a variety of options, including work experience for credit, evening, and summer courses both in school and outside school. The programs coordinated with colleges, adult education, and diploma equivalency tests.

The existing compulsory attendance law, passed in 1983 and amended in 1987, requires parents to ensure that children between seven and 16 attend school during the entire regular term. The law does not require parental involvement in a 16-year-old's decision to drop out, but the new plan specifies parental permission in order to transfer to an alternative program.

Under the seven-hour proposal, five hours would be used for basic core instruction: language arts, mathematics, science, social studies including history, and foreign languages.

"The other two hours could be used to teach other subjects and provide other necessary services to students. The state superintendent of education would provide technical assistance, to help districts use school time more efficiently and effectively."

The report says, "There has been a displacement of time, a reallocation of effort away from what have historically been the important basic classes."

"As much as 47 percent of the school day in Illinois high schools is now spent on areas other than those core courses, primarily because the state has failed to prioritize among the various requirements placed on schools in the last century."

"It is indeed ironic that current questions and criticisms of student achievement focus precisely on those aspects of schooling which were virtually the sole tasks of schools prior to the turn of the century. And from which time had necessarily been borrowed to accommodate new instructional tasks and services."

"A new consensus has been achieved on an old priority for education—a achievement in the core areas of learning identified more than 100 years ago as the primary tasks of schooling."

"Although the state probably cannot and should not attempt to dam the ebb and flow of societal demands on the school, it should define what it wishes to have done and define the inviolate time which must be made available for it."

Recommendations also say that student transportation should no longer be necessary, and that reporting of immunization and health examination data should be eased.

Big changes at Chrysler plant

Each new model year in the auto industry brings about changes not only in the vehicles produced but also in the way they are assembled. At Chrysler's No. 2 St. Louis assembly plant, 1,500 hourly employees returning to work discovered how much assembly line operations had changed during the three years they were away from their jobs.

The plant reopened last month to produce rear-wheel-drive cars, including the Chrysler Fifth Avenue, the Dodge Diplomat, and the Plymouth Grand Fury and Caravelle Saloon.

It had been closed since July 1980, when the company discontinued production of large-size vans in this metropolitan area.

C. A. "Al" Kelly, personnel administration manager for the plant, coordinated a $1.2 million program, which included more than 70,000 man-hours of training to enable the work force up to date with changes and new assembly methods.

"Completing the task of retraining our people was the fact that most had never before built passenger cars," Kelly noted. "The Chrysler Institute and related corporate educational services, as well as the plant's own sophisticated electronic equipment, assisted us in putting together and conducting the concentrated, comprehensive program we needed."

In addition, he said, the State of Missouri assisted in funding worker retraining, and the City of St. Louis and Franklin, Jefferson, and St. Louis counties also contributed to the training programs.

The training reached all levels, including production employees, skilled trades, general salary employees, and management.

All employees received broad orientation covering the plant environment, operations, products, job responsibilities, and benefits.

Windsor Assembly closed in June to begin a changeover to the new wagon-vans, the Dodge Caravan and Plymouth Voyager.

Until then, St. Louis Assembly personnel were able to observe the rear-wheel-drive assembly operation and work sessions with Windsor staff to learn the system.

"Fortunately, we did not have to do all the training ourselves," Kelly noted. "The Chrysler Institute and related corporate educational services, as well as the plant's own sophisticated electronic equipment, assisted us in putting together and conducting the concentrated,

South-Western cable agrees to be sold

By JUDY TAPLIN and ED GURNEY
South-Western Cable TV, which serves Granite City and many surrounding communities, will sell "substantially all" of its assets to First Carolina Communications, Inc.

Notification of the pending sale was made to the communities last week by Gerald Kazma, president of South-Western.

The letter said First Carolina will operate the existing cable system under a newly formed partnership named South-Western Cable TV, Ltd.

Franchise agreements with the various communities specify that local city councils and village boards must consent before South-Western can transfer or sell any of its assets.

An arbitration procedure is included if a city and the cable firm cannot agree on the sale or transfer.

In his letter, Kazma asks for that consent as soon as possible. Kazma and representatives of First Carolina plan to attend city council and village board meetings to answer questions regarding the proposed sale agreement, the letter said.

South-Western serves Collinsville, Caseyville, Maryville, Troy, Glen Carbon, Pontoon Beach, Highland, Edwardsville and Granite City.

The sale was "just a business decision" on the owners' part, according to David Olson, vice-president of South-Western.

"They hadn't really intended to, but someone came along who wanted it, made a good offer, and they sold it."

He said the number of South-Western subscribers in its four years of existence has matched projections. The firm has its headquarters in Maryville. Its parent company is based in Canada.

Kazma, one of South-Western's owners, will be leaving, but that all other personnel at South-Western won't be affected.

Olson said he knew of no personnel changes in the offering.

He said it is too early to tell if there will be programming changes under the new ownership.

The sale may be completed within the next two to four weeks, if the various communities give their consent, Olson said.

Democratic Economic Recovery Bill signed

A bill drafted by House Democrats to spur economic recovery in Illinois became law as Governor Thompson affixed his signature to the legislation.

House Bill 2290 was a package of proposals designed to address the most serious problem confronting small and medium sized businesses in Illinois, said Rep. Wyvetter Youngs (D-East St. Louis), member of Speaker Madigan's Task Force on Economic Recovery. At public hearings around the state, we were told time and again that these smaller firms found it very difficult to obtain the financing they need at a reasonable rate.

"Creation of the Insured Industrial Bond Program, which became a reality today, will ensure that business will have access to financing."

Rep. Youngs suggested that the most important aspect of the bill is its emphasis on private sector participation in supplying new capital.

"I'm particularly pleased that we were able to minimize the state's financial involvement in this program," Youngs said. "No state dollars will be invested immediately, and the state's credit backing is very limited."

Other features of the bill include the consolidation of existing state bureaucracies under the aegis of the new IF Illinois Development Finance Authority. The authority will be responsible for the administration of the Insured Industrial Bond Program, the Illinois Venture Investment Fund and the Illinois Land Bank Program.

The Insured Industrial Bond Program calls for the cooperation of the private sector and the state in making loans to eligible borrowers. The new state agency can issue $225 million in revenue bonds for the loans, with the bonds insured by an overall $30 million dollar loan from the state's pension funds.

The Illinois Venture Investment Fund will finance projects to create new jobs in Illinois in a partnership with private investors, while the Illinois Land Bank will target property in depressed areas for redevelopment.

"This bill was the result of hearings all over Illinois in which we heard the complaints, comments and ideas from the business community and tried to incorporate their testimony into this law," Rep. Youngs said.

"I believe the economic development package has the potential to turn the Illinois economy around," Rep. Youngs said. "I'm enormously pleased to have been involved in its creation."

Explains changes in bingo rules

State Rep. Monroe Flynn (D-Cahokia) has explained the limits on bingo games under the newly-amended state law. Flynn said erroneous information was sent out by the state news service, leading to several wrong newspaper articles.

The number of bingo games allowed each night remains unchanged at 25 per day, except in Madison and St. Clair counties, where two additional games are allowed nightly.

Up to $500 can be paid per game, but the limit paid out per the night cannot exceed $2,250, up from the former limit of $2,250, Flynn said.

BURGLAR GETS RINGS
A burglar took diamond rings worth $850 and $125 and a $150 watch last week after prying open a window at the Clarence Wallace home, 3144 Myrtle Ave.

THEFT FROM HOUSE
After two men stayed overnight at his home, Larry Kampmann, 1740 Chestnut St., reported at 2:40 p.m. Friday that an AM-FM eight-track car stereo valued at $100 and an equalizer worth $25 were discovered to be missing from his home.

Bids opened for Lee Park improvements

Initial bids on materials and playground equipment for the Lee Park Improvement Project were opened at last week's Venice City Council meeting, but were referred to the Madison County Community Development agency with a recommendation that the lower bids be accepted.

Some discrepancies in the number of items being proposed by those submitting bids made comparison of figures virtually impossible, Mayor Tyrone Echols commented.

Bids on 27 items of playground equipment, such as volleyball and tennis nets, swings, climbers and slides, amounted to $8,358 in a bid submitted by Bergfield

Recreation Co. of Manchester, Mo.

In the same category, but listing 12 items only, Roger J. Hutchinson and Associates of Troy, Mo., submitted a $5,923 bid.

A similar situation developed when bids for materials were opened. B and E Lumber Co. offered a bid of $2,570 to provide various tools, lumber, picnic tables, concrete, nails and roofing materials, while Sutherland Lumber Co., bidding on additional items, submitted a $3,063 bid.

Third Ward Alderman George Lewis made a motion to accept the lowest bids and refer the documents to the Community Development agency to determine the merits of the individual bids.

Improvements to Lee Park will be made with a $30,000 Community Development grant, which was awarded to the city.

Mayor Echols noted that bids currently are being sought for constructing the new Venice Senior Community Center, with the bid openings scheduled at 2 p.m. Oct. 18 at the Venice City Hall.

The 3,800-square-foot frame and masonry veneer building is to be constructed at Klein and Brown streets.

The new structure, designed and engineered by Fleming Corp. of St. Louis, will be funded with $75,000 in Community Development funds and an additional $109,000 previously earmarked for a new community center.

OFFICERS DISPERSE

106 WATCHING FIGHT
An estimated crowd of 100 youths, attracted to a dispute between two teenagers, was dispersed by police at 11:15 p.m. Saturday at Rodger and Carlson avenues.

Two youths, both 15 years old, were found at the center of the crowd and were charged with fighting. They were released to the custody of their respective parents after $52 cash bonds were posted.

PARTY ATTRACTS POLICE ATTENTION

Receiving complaints of a loud party at 3201 Kilarney Drive at 11:55 p.m. Saturday, officers went there a second time and arrested the occupant, Robert O. Gassett, 19, for allegedly maintaining a public nuisance.

Between 40 and 50 teenagers were kept away from the dwelling at that time. About 20 minutes earlier, police had visited the home due to similar calls and had asked an estimated crowd of 30 young people to leave. Gassett was released on a $52 cash bond.
